Item 5.04. Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans.

As previously disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 24, 2010 (the "Prior 8-K Report"), Revlon Consumer Products Corporation ("RCPC"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Revlon, Inc. ("Revlon;" together with RCPC, the "Company"), is transitioning the record keeper of the Revlon Employees' Savings, Investment and Profit Sharing Plan, RCPC's qualified defined contribution 401(k) plan (the "Plan"), in the ordinary course of business. Also as disclosed in the Prior 8-K Report, in connection with the transitioning of Plan accounts, as is standard administrative procedure, a blackout on account activity was imposed, including investments into or out of the plan investment fund option which holds Revlon, Inc. Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share.

The purpose of this Current Report is to announce that the Company has extended the previously announced temporary blackout period from sometime during the week of October 10, 2010 (which was disclosed in the Prior 8-K Report) to sometime during the week of October 17, 2010 in order to allow the Plan record keeper to complete the transition. Again, during the temporary blackout period, as extended, Plan participants will not have access to their account information and will not be able to transfer, change or diversify their current investments under the Plan. Participants will be notified when the temporary blackout period has been lifted.

In connection with the foregoing, the Company has sent a notice to its executive officers and directors, pursuant to applicable laws, informing them that, among other things, during the blackout period as extended, they remain prohibited from, directly or indirectly, purchasing, selling or otherwise acquiring or transferring equity securities of Revlon acquired in connection with their service or employment as a director or executive officer.

During the blackout period and for a period of two years after the ending date thereof, a Revlon security holder or other interested person may obtain, without charge, information regarding the blackout period, including the actual beginning and ending dates of the blackout period, by contacting the office of the Executive Vice President, Human Resources, Chief Legal Officer and General Counsel of Revlon, Inc. at 237 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10017; telephone 212-527-5695.
