On December 24, 2013, Revlon Consumer Products Corporation (“RCPC”), the wholly owned operating subsidiary of Revlon, Inc., consummated an offer to exchange (the “Exchange Offer”) RCPC’s $500 million 5.75% Senior Notes due 2021 (the “Notes”), which were issued in a private placement on February 8, 2013, for $500 million of new notes with substantially the same terms which were registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Exchange Notes”).

By having the Registration Statement declared effective by the SEC on November 22, 2013, RCPC cured the first “Registration Default,” which had occurred under the Registration Rights Agreement, dated February 8, 2013, by and among RCPC and the initial purchasers of the Notes (the “Registration Rights Agreement”), because the Registration Statement had not been declared effective by Friday, September 6, 2013. By consummating the Exchange Offer on December 24, 2013, RCPC cured the second Registration Default under the Registration Rights Agreement, which had occurred because RCPC had not consummated the Exchange Offer by November 5, 2013.

The first Registration Default caused the interest on the Notes to increase from 5.75% per annum to 6.00% per annum from September 7, 2013 through December 5, 2013 and the second Registration Default caused the interest on the Notes to increase to 6.25% per annum from December 6, 2013 through December 23, 2013. With RCPC having consummated the Exchange Offer on December 24, 2013, interest on the Notes will accrue at the original rate of 5.75% per annum effective from such date. RCPC had accrued $0.3 million of additional interest as of September 30, 2013, and has subsequently accrued $0.1 million of additional interest.
